

Floriography

Floriography—the language of flowers—has roots in ancient folklore from all over the world.

Some blooms carry enduring meaning across time and geography, while others have unique stories specific to a region.

Colors also influence a flower's message. Petal colors generally represent certain ideas, but individual meanings may be unique.

Embark on a journey of discovery and hear what secrets your garden holds.

SYDNEY
FRUSTI
author

Writer, amateur botanist, and full-time adventurer, Sydney Frusti writes about light overcoming darkness and finding our place in the world.

www.sydneyfrusti.com

FLORIOGRAPHY
the secret language of flowers

COMMON FLOWERS AND THEIR MEANINGS

Amaryllis boldness, pride
Anthurium hospitality
Asphodel my regrets follow you
Azalea take care of yourself
Basil hate
Begonia to repay a favor, warning
Belladonna silence
Bluebell humility, faithfulness
Camellia longing for you
Celosia courage
Crocus success
Daffodil chivalry, new beginnings
Dahlia eternal love, commitment
Daisy childhood
Fern magic, secrecy
Foxglove riddles, secrets
Gladiolus bravery
Hawthorn hope
Heather luck, protection
Hellebore scandal, renewal
Hemlock death
Holly foresight
Honeysuckle nostalgia, first love
Hyacinth please forgive me

Iris wisdom, valor, faith
Ivy fidelity
Laurel victory
Lavender distrust
Lily innocence
Lily-of-the-valley apology
Marigold grief
Mint hospitality, consolation
Mistletoe surmounting all difficulties
Moonflower hope in darkness
Myrtle marriage
Nettle cruelty
Oleander caution
Olive peace
Oxalis joy
Petunia anger, resentment
Poinsettia good cheer, success
Poppy remembrance
Protea transformation
Queen Anne's lace sanctuary

Rhododendron danger
Rose love
Rue regret
Sage thoughtfulness, wisdom
Scilla loyalty, fidelity
Snowdrop consolation, hope
Sunflower fortune, false riches
Sweet Pea thanks for a lovely time
Tansy hostility
Thistle misanthropy
Tulip deep love
Viscaria may I have this dance!
Waterlily rebirth
Wildflower hope, new beginnings
Wormwood bitterness

COLOR MEANING

Red love, respect, courage
Orange passion, creativity
Yellow joy, friendship
Blue peace, deep trust
Purple royalty, wisdom
Pink admiration, gratitude, grace
White purity, innocence